

Tender Moments

The first question to ask is: Are we the ones you want to capture your wedding memories on film? At Tender Moments we believe that finding wedding professionals that fit your personality and your wedding needs is so important. That is why you can expect us to be available to you at every turn during your planning process.

We love meeting with every couple over coffee or lunch to get to know you and learn all we can about your big day. We will ask you questions; tell you all about us and our services. We want the process of planning your wedding film to be fun and exciting which is why you can expect -A personalized consultation meeting-Follow up meetings at your discretion-A venue walk through or visit Communication with your other wedding pros!

One of the many great things about Tender Moments is that you don't have to decide what you want or need at the time of booking. You only have to decide if we are the ones you want capturing your wedding day.

There is one retainer for all our services that reserves Tender Moments for your wedding day. After, we work with you to build a customized package that perfectly fits your wedding day.

We have packages starting at $800 and every package includes a custom Cinematic Trailer, a custom wrap-around photo case, and access to the full service professionals at Tender Moments.

The most important thing to us is to make sure that we capture every single one of your wedding memories for your future.
